

MF Communications partners with Cetis to supply phones to hotel sector.

Leading UK telecom reseller now an authorised distributor of Teledex and TeleMatrix phones.

Colorado Springs, CO – January 23, 2017 – Leading UK telecoms reseller, MF Communications, is now an authorised distributor of Teledex and TeleMatrix brand phones, the guest phones used by a large number of hotels.

According to Ben Capas, Director of MF Communications, “We continually look to improve our service to customers, and adding Cetis to our portfolio means we can offer an even wider choice. We already work with a number of businesses in the hospitality sector, so this is another chance for us to expand our reach into this industry”, he concludes.

With almost 17 years in the telecommunications industry, hardware experts and network services provider, MF Communications, can advise on and supply the complete Teledex and TeleMatrix ranges across the UK and globally. With more than 30 years of manufacturing analogue and IP hotel phones, Cetis phones are preferred or approved by leading hotel groups, and 300,000+ hotel VoIP phones are installed worldwide. The Teledex and TeleMatrix models are interop-certified with all major PBX, IP-PBX and Cloud phone system providers, including Alcatel-Lucent, Avaya, Cisco, Mitel, NEC and Unify.

“We are delighted to be working with MF Communications to supply TeleMatrix and Teledex phones in the UK, says Hui Du Le-Ngoc, Managing Director, Cetis (EA) Ltd. This partnership gives our loyal customer base and new businesses the opportunity to purchase from a reputable reseller”.
